1. P.C. Joshi, head of the Communist Party for India and Burma, and Suddedin, Muslim Leaguer and under-cover Communist leader for the Waltair area, held a secret meeting on the night of 8 January. At this meeting plans were made for the future program of the Communist Party in the Waltair district. During discussions Joshi stated that this program came from the Russians and was not completely applicable to Indian circumstances.
2. The meeting was held in strict secrecy at the home of Hullick, active Muslim Leaguer and wealthy friend of Suddedin, on Chitpore Road, Calcutta. Funds were given to Suddedin at this time.
3. Also present at the meeting, aside from Joshi, Suddedin and Hullick, was Bachisk, Calcutta businessman and owner of a large dairy on the outskirts of Calcutta.
